分享感言	The story started from an alcoholic woman, Kathy, who ignored a letter from the government and eventually her house was sent for auction. Her house was later bought by an immigrant from Iran. His life was totally changed after purchasing the property. Unfortunately, it's a mistake from the government so Kathy wanted her house back. Lots of things happened when Kathy tried everything in order to get her house back, including attempting suicide. The ending is tragic and unexpected. A lot of problems are caused by ignorance and miscommunication. This is one of the best books I have ever read.
